2009 FALL IMMERSION WORKSHOP

September 12 - 13, 2009

McDaniel College, Westminster, MD

8:00am Saturday – 12pm Sunday

ZEITGENÖSSISCHER FILM IM DEUTSCHUNTERRICHT!

Ein Immersion-Workshop mit Ingrid Zeller

Hosted at McDaniel College

The AATG, Maryland/DC Metro Chapter and the Goethe-Institut Washington invite you to its Annual Fall Immersion Weekend for German teachers, hosted by McDaniel College in Westminster, Maryland.

The workshop will include:

- An overview of recent trends in German cinema
- Discussion of new approaches to contemporary German film
- Presentation of model activities with film clips
- Hands-on implementation of pedagogical strategies

Film topics range from the merging of east and west beyond the Berlin Wall to perspectives on dealing with Germany's complex history to sounds and spaces as represented through music films. Among other primary aspects relevant in didacticizing a film, the use and production of visuals such as still images and video clips captured from the film will be discussed in detail. Participants will develop their own activities as they work in small groups on didacticizing a film or part of a film. Films under consideration for group work include:

East and West / Beyond the Berlin Wall

Goodbye Lenin; Das Leben der Anderen; Der Tunnel; Das Versprechen

Historical Approaches

Am Ende kommen Touristen; Napola; Die Welle; Die Fälscher

Music and Film – Sounds and Spaces / Musical Journeys

Vitus; Heißer Sommer; Comedian Harmonists; Jenseits der Stille

Ingrid Zeller is Senior Lecturer in the Department of German at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois and is an active member in the Northern Illinois AATG Chapter. She studied music at the Manhattan School of Music and completed graduate degrees in German Language and Literature at Columbia University in New York City. Ingrid has published and presented on films, music, architecture, drama, and other topics in the context of language acquisition. (from <http://www.german.northwestern.edu/people/zeller.html>)
