THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS FOR THEIR SUPPORT:

The American Association of Teachers of German

Serving teachers of German since 1926. The mission of the AATG is based on the belief that bringing the language, literatures and cultures of the German-speaking world to all Americans is a vital humanistic endeavor which serves essential national interests. It is the only national individual membership organization dedicated to the advancement and improvement of the language, literature, and culture of the German-speaking countries. www.aatg.org

Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany/ German Information Center

The German Information Center USA (GIC) makes it easy for you to find information about Germany - a fascinating blend of the traditional and the modern, an effective global team player helping the world meet the political, economic and environmental challenges of tomorrow. www.germany.info

The Goethe-Institut

The Goethe-Institut is the cultural institute of the Federal Republic of Germany with institutes in locations around the globe to promote knowledge of the German language abroad and to foster international cultural cooperation.

Zentrale für das Auslandsschulwesen (ZfA)

The Central Agency for Schools Abroad supports over 1,200 schools worldwide, including 141 German schools abroad – mainly in public-private partnership – and approximately 1,100 schools in the respective educational system in which the German

Language Certificate (DSD) can be acquired. In close cooperation with the federal states, the ZfA provides them with personnel, financial and pedagogical assistance. www.auslandsschulwesen.de/richmond

The Zion Church of Baltimore continues to hold Lutheran worship services each Sunday, led by the Reverends Anke and Eric Deibler. It is the oldest church in the nation that has maintained uninterrupted worship services in the German language for 250 years, and Zion is now the only church in Maryland to offer a weekly service in German. For more information about the Zion Church please visit their website at <https://www.zionbaltimore.org>.

The German Society of Maryland is one of the oldest institutions in America. It was organized in 1783 to protect and assist German-speaking immigrants. It received its charter from the Maryland legislature in 1817.

In the 1800's it was the social service agency of the State of Maryland, which provided aid to German immigrants. In the early 1900's it persuaded Congress to enact national laws for the protection of immigrants. The purpose of the German Society of Maryland is to preserve and promote the German heritage, language and traditions through educational, social, and benevolent programs; and to develop the unity and continuity of the German American community in the State of Maryland. For more information about the German Society of Maryland, please visit their website at: <https://www.germansociety-md.com/>
